BUFFS GET INTO ACTION UNDER LIGHTS TUESDAY

ONLY A WEEK REMAINS UNTIL OPENING GAME.

Team Looks Good as Time Nears For Opening Game; Scraps Made For Berths.

Only one more week remains and the Buffaloes, 1930 edition, will swing into action under the brilliant lights at Buffalo Stadium in an attempt to knock over the powerful Central Teachers from Oklahoma, the 1929 Sooner state champions, as a season opener for Panhandle grid fans. The encounter promises to be a grid classic that will linger long in the memory of football fans of this section.

Everything at the Buff camp is being rounded out and all power of the Thundring Herd will be turned loose on the field beneath the powerful rays of the 72,000 watt lights. Besides the opening of the football season at the college with one of the most promising squads seen here in several seasons, the game next Friday night will usher in night football for West Texas fans.

Impatient for the great fall sport of football to get under way and lured by the novel experience of witnessing thrilling grid battles at night, a large crowd of Canyon people were attracted to Buffalo Stadium Tuesday night to see the appearance of the Buffaloes under the new 72,000 watt lights recently installed. Current was turned into the lights for the first time Monday. Stepping into the brilliantly lighted enclosure the Buffs, with a white football, the kind to be used in night games, experienced the thrill of playing under the lights.

The onlookers Tuesday evening were agreeably surprised at the clearness and ease with which the game could be witnessed. "Perfect" was the unanimous verdict of all present. Many declared that the game at night was even better and could be watched much better under the conditions at Buffalo Stadium at night than in the daylight. There are no shadows on the field and the rays of light are so distributed over the field that no glare affects the eyes of the fans.

Canyon Schools to Dismiss for Fair Thursday

Irby Carruth, school superintendent, announces that Thursday, September 25, will be an open holiday for the entire student body to attend the Tri-State Fair on the day set aside for Canyon day at the Panhandle exposition.

Mr. Carruth states that the faculty will appreciate the co-operation of the parents in attending the Fair on Thursday if at all possible. He asks that parents do not take their children out of classes to attend the fair on other days during the week. This disrupts the class work and interferes with the program of the school. Therefore, in order that all school students be given an opportunity to attend the fair the holiday on Canyon day is being declared.

Canyon Eagles Will Mix With Borger on Friday

For their second encounter of the current season the Canyon High School Eagles will meet the Borger High School eleven on home territory at Buffalo Stadium tomorrow afternoon at 3:40.

The Eagles who emerged from the first game of the season last Friday afternoon with the Happy team with a scoreless tie, are ready for another tussle, according to Coach Edgar Brady. The only injuries from which members of the team are suffering are sprains. None of these are serious or expected to cause a loss of any man in the game Friday.

As a result of Friday's game the high school mentor was able to locate the weak spots in the Eagle machine. He has made a number of changes in the position of the players in an effort to find a smooth working eleven. The team shown a general improvement this week and were working in fast style yesterday afternoon.

"The team is in tip-top shape and ready to go against Borger," was Brady's comment.

F. F. Gregory is Victim of Heart Failure on Friday

Funeral services were held at the First Presbyterian church at 3 p. m. Saturday for F. F. Gregory, pioneer resident of Canyon, who died Friday as a result of a heart attack. Rev. W. C. Kunze, pastor of the church conducted the services.

The Gregorys have lived in Canyon for the past 20 years and are well known over the Panhandle. Mr. Gregory's death was sudden. He was apparently enjoying excellent health and had just finished the noon meal when he was taken suddenly ill. He lived only about two hours from the time the attack first struck him.

He was a native of Missouri and was born June 9, 1856, being 74 years, 3 months and 3 days old at the time of his death. He had been a member of the Presbyterian church for a number of years.

Surviving are his widow, three daughters, Mrs. Etta Anderson, Mrs. O. W. Gano and Miss Mildred Gregory, all of Canyon; two sons, L. B. Gregory of Turkey, and Doyle Gregory of Plainview, and one brother, Sam Gregory of Vigo Park.

Pallbearers were: S. B. Orton, N. E. McIntire, J. A. Guthrie, R. McGee, Grady Oldham and C. N. Harrison.

Interment was at Dreamland cemetery under the direction of the Griggs-Thompson funeral home.

Constitution Day Observed Tuesday by Rotary Club

President Joe A. Hill of W. T. spoke Tuesday at the Rotary Club weekly luncheon on the constitution of the United States in observation of Constitution Day which was observed yesterday throughout the United States.

Mr. Hill stated that the average citizen does not appreciate the government in which he lives. He takes the blessing of government as a matter of course. Government is a remote thing, in the mind of the average citizen, and he does not feel his responsibility. The security of a democratic form of government depends upon the interest and the intelligence of the people. There are too large a percent who do not vote, and it is said that fully two-thirds who do vote do not take the time to study the men and the issues.

There must be an awakening of the citizens if this government is to be a great success.

Mr. Hill outlined the early history of America, when the 13 colonies struggled for independence and the chaos which followed the war for independence as the 13 rivals attempted to succeed working under the loosely drawn Articles of Confederation. The result was the drawing of the Constitution of the United States, which became effective in 1789. That it was well drawn, and covers most of the needs of the country is shown that of the hundreds of proposals to amend the constitution, only nineteen attempts have been successful, and ten of these amendments were adopted at one time soon after the original had become effective.

The government of the United States is one of checks and balances, between the three departments—legislative, judicial and executive. This form was adopted in fear of too greatly a centralized government.

Democracy is the political form of Christianity. The good citizen lives the ideals that lay at the base of government. Every citizen must rise to the point of personal purity and loyalty if this government is to succeed.

Visitors and guests present were: Arthur Osgood, Guy Carlander and R. T. Westerfield of Amarillo; C. E. Jameson, L. N. George, C. O. Cooper of Canyon and Rev. J. H. Meredith of Ozona.

Help Keep Canyon Clean.

SPECIAL SHORT COURSES TO BE GIVEN BY W. T.

BUSINESS PEOPLE OFFERED SPECIAL COURSES

One and Two Classes May Be Attended; Regular Work Offered But No Credit Allowed.

The College is offering a special privilege to the men and women of Canyon this year. The privilege of attending classes is extended to any citizen of the town of adjacent territory who wishes to avail himself of the opportunity. A fee of five dollars for each quarter enables him to attend two classes; such a student will have all the privileges of other members of the class, except that no credit will be given.

It has been pointed out that in other college towns there are many people who avail themselves of the opportunity to keep themselves alert and increase their general education by attending college classes.

There are twenty departments offering work at the college; all of them would welcome auditors. The departments of history, English, home economics, agriculture, geography, government and sociology should be especially attractive to townspeople.

There is no such thing as a finished education in the world today, and adults everywhere are clamoring for a chance to do some studying.

It is possible to arrange to attend two classes, so as to be at the college one hour each day of the week, or so as to be at the college two hours on three days of the week. Business men who would like to become further acquainted with business law or the history of commerce could attend just one class, spending three hours weekly in the college.

Catalogs and programs will be furnished all who are interested in receiving them. Registrar D. A. Shirley will be glad to answer inquiries. He may be reached by calling 233, and asking for Mr. Shirley's office.

J. F. LOVE GETS IN "50 YEARS AGO" OF THE DALLAS NEWS

J. F. Love, who lives east of Canyon, was given mention last week in the 50 Years Ago column of the Dallas News as follows:

J. F. Love, a young man of about 21 years, picked 517 pounds of cotton between sunrise and sunset on Tuesday on D. A. McCollum's plantation, some twenty miles east of Dallas.

In referring to the above mention, Mr. Love recalled Monday that the year following he picked 600 pounds on the same place. He stated that this was the year following the invention of barbed wire, which was being introduced, but not much used owing to the high price. Looking back over the 50 years, Mr. Love recalled many interesting developments. Mr. Love is 74 years of age, but as active as any man of 50 years.

College Halls Are Being Filled Opening of Fall Term

Cousins Hall is already filled to capacity for the fall session. Reservations are being received daily for rooms in Randall Hall, and it is expected that it will be filled by the end of the week.

Students and parents have been visiting Canyon every day for the past week making arrangements for living quarters, and learning particulars about the opening of the fall session.

As upper classmen do not register until next Monday, it is to be expected that most of them, being already familiar with the situation in Canyon, will not arrive in town until that time.

Warren Family Escapes Injury In Truck Crash

In an accident which occurred on the Amarillo highway and caused by the driver of a truck failing to place the proper lights on his vehicle, the W. A. Warren family narrowly escaped serious injury, last Monday night.

While on the way to Amarillo, the car driven by Mr. Warren struck a truck that had been parked on the highway without lights. Not only had the truck been parked without lights of any kind, but it had not been removed from the path of the traffic on the highway and remained fully on the highway.

Mr. Warren stated that the accident occurred on the curve north of town and that it was impossible to see the truck until he was too close to avoid the crash. Only slight damage was done to the truck, while the extent of damage done to the Warren car amounted to $200.00.

It is pointed out that this is just another of several cases when the law should be rigidly enforced in regard to the proper lights on a car being driven at night. Driving at a moderate rate of speed one cannot see such objects parked on the highway until many times it is too late to avoid an accident.

A number of other such accidents have occurred lately and drastic measures should be adopted to halt the operation of motor vehicles on the highways without lights. With such vehicles on the highway the lives of those who are driving are greatly endangered.

Two Life Members Added to P.P.H.S.

Judge Ivy C. Duncan of Pampa, Texas is the latest addition to the group of life members of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. Judge Duncan has been a prominent resident of Pampa for many years.

Jerome D. Stocking, son of the first doctor who practiced in the Clarendon district has recently become an annual member of the organization. Mr. Stocking is well informed upon the geology and paleontology of the Panhandle region.

BEGIN FIGHT TO CLEAR ROADS OF UNLIGHTED CARS

CITY AND COUNTY TO BRING FORCES TOGETHER.

Public Demand Increases For Stopping Drivers of Cars Improperly Equipped With Lights.

Uniting the law enforcement machines of both the city of Canyon and Randall county, announcement is made that a war is to be waged against drivers of cars without lights after dark. Both the county and city officials are joining hands to see that the law is going to be enforced to the letter in clearing up the night traffic and make night driving safer for residents of Canyon and Randall county. This announcement comes from both the Mayor of Canyon and the Sheriff's office.

This decision has been reached after much public demand following several serious accidents and near serious accidents caused by careless drivers at night. On several occasions recently wrecks have been caused by drivers of trucks stopping their vehicle in the center of the path of traffic on the highways without the proper lights required by law.

It has reached the point where night driving is a menace to the lives of Randall county people and some drastic action is needed before lives are snuffed out by some careless driver leaving a parked vehicle on the road without lights to warn approaching drivers. Drivers of cars with one light are an equal menace on the highways after dark.

The entire citizenship is urged to co-operate in this drive to clear up the traffic dangers at night. People who have bad lights on their motor vehicles will be doing a favor to themselves and others as well, to repair the lights and place the proper lights on their cars and trucks.

The law clearly states the manner in which motor vehicles should be lighted after dark and the public sentiment for the enforcement of the law to the letter should be so strong that law enforcement officers should be demanded to enforce the law to the letter with favors extended to none and without fear of anyone. When the offender is hailed into court those in charge should assess a penalty so heavy that such an offense will not occur the second time.

YEARS DO NOT WORRY J. E. ANDERSEN

Apparently the years are not weighing heavily on either J. E. Andersen or his mount, as evidenced by their activities Wednesday. Mr. Andersen, who is four score years and one, and who lives 7½ miles from the city, arrived in town Wednesday astride his horse who has reached the ripe age of 23 years.

Mr. Andersen has lived in this community for 20 years and is by birth a Swede. He came to the United States in 1864.

Upchurch Offers $5.00 for Potatoes

The price of Randall county grown Irish potatoes are going up. At the price offered by W. H. Upchurch for a half bushel of home grown potatoes, of quality good enough to display at the Tri-State Fair, gives the market an upward trend.

In order to complete the Randall county exhibit at the Tri-State Fair, County Agent Upchurch will give $5.00 for a half bushel of Irish potatoes, if they are good enough to add to his display, provided they were grown in Randall county and are delivered to his office not later than Saturday night.

T. & P. Surveyors Run Line West of Canyon to Amarillo

Surveyors for the proposed T. & P. railroad extension have been in Randall county the past week, and are working on a line which would cross the Santa Fe about six miles west of Canyon, going into Amarillo. This is said by the foreman to be a preliminary line, although he intimates that instructions are that the road, if built would miss Canyon.

Chamber of Commerce officials in talking with the surveyors were told that T. & P. officials had been informed that Canyon was hostile to the new road, and would oppose its coming into the city. Where this impression had been gained, they were unable to state.

The surveyors were informed that no action had been taken in Canyon either for or against the extension. It has been stated that should the road be granted a permit to build that the logical route was for the T. & P. to build into Canyon, and then use the Santa Fe double track into Amarillo.

A meeting was held in Austin this week by those interested in the proposed extension of the railroad, and the support of the Texas railroad commission, the attorney general and the governor was enlisted in the project.

So far no official action has been taken in Amarillo to sponsor the new line.

T. & P. officials have been working in various counties along the proposed line, seeking the right-of-way. So far nothing has been asked in Randall county. The officials state that all they will ask is the gift of the right-of-way and the terminal facilities.

Improvements Are Made at Whiteway

Extensive improvements have been made at the White Way Service Station during the past several days. The building has been painted white and orange. New concrete driveways have been built and the general appearance of the station changed.

R. A. Fickie, local manager of the Gulf Refining company has leased the filling station and installed new Gulf gasoline pumps. Andy Walsh, who has previously operated the station will be manager for the station which will be known as a Gulf authorized dealer agent station.

Mr. Walsh will continue to operate the Whiteway Grocery and Cabs as he has heretofore.

COLLEGE STARTS ENROLLMENT ON FRIDAY MORNING

FRESHMEN ENROLL FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Upperclassmen Enroll Monday and Tuesday; Regular Classes Meet Wednesday.

The twenty-first annual long term of the West Texas State Teachers College will be well under way when several hundred Freshmen from all sections of the Panhandle begin enrolling at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The first faculty meeting was held today, with the entire faculty present, including all new members. The faculty meeting marked the beginning of the opening activities of the fall term.

Tomorrow and Saturday will be consumed by registration of the Freshmen and the holding of entrance examinations. The Freshmen will have full sway at the college over the week end. The first assembly will be held at 11 o'clock Friday morning, with Registrar D. A. Shirley and Dean R. P. Jarrett in charge of the assembly.

At 8 p. m. Friday the Freshmen will be the guests of W. J. Wooten at the annual theater party at the Olympic Theater. A second assembly will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 with President Hill delivering the principal address.

Separate meetings for Freshmen boys and girls will be held from 2:30 to 3:30 p. m. Saturday. Mr. Cook will be in charge of the boys meeting and Miss Graham will be in charge of the girls. A watermelon feast will be served on the Campus late Saturday evening with Dr. Pierle in charge.

On Monday the Sophomores and upperclassmen will begin enrolling. Monday will be moving up day for the Sophomores with the meeting for that ceremony to be held at 4:30 p. m. On Tuesday the first chapel program will be given.

Regular classes will begin meeting Wednesday morning. On Saturday evening following the faculty will give a reception to the students.

Indications point to a good enrollment at the college this year. There are comparatively few vacant houses in Canyon, which may be regarded as a strong indication of a heavy attendance at the College.

County Removed From List of Drouth Counties

Randall county has been removed from the list of drouth suffering counties in West Texas according to information received here from Washington by County Agent W. H. Upchurch.

In a message addressed to the county agent the drouth relief commission stated, "Certification of your county for reduced railroad rates has been suspended pending further investigation."

For some unknown reason all counties in West Texas were placed on the list of Texas counties needing drouth relief, including all Panhandle counties. Although Randall county has been far below normal the point has not reached a stage of distress.

In reply to the message from Washington, Mr. Upchurch wired the government officials as follows: "Randall county crops are short, however, we expect no distress or serious food shortage."

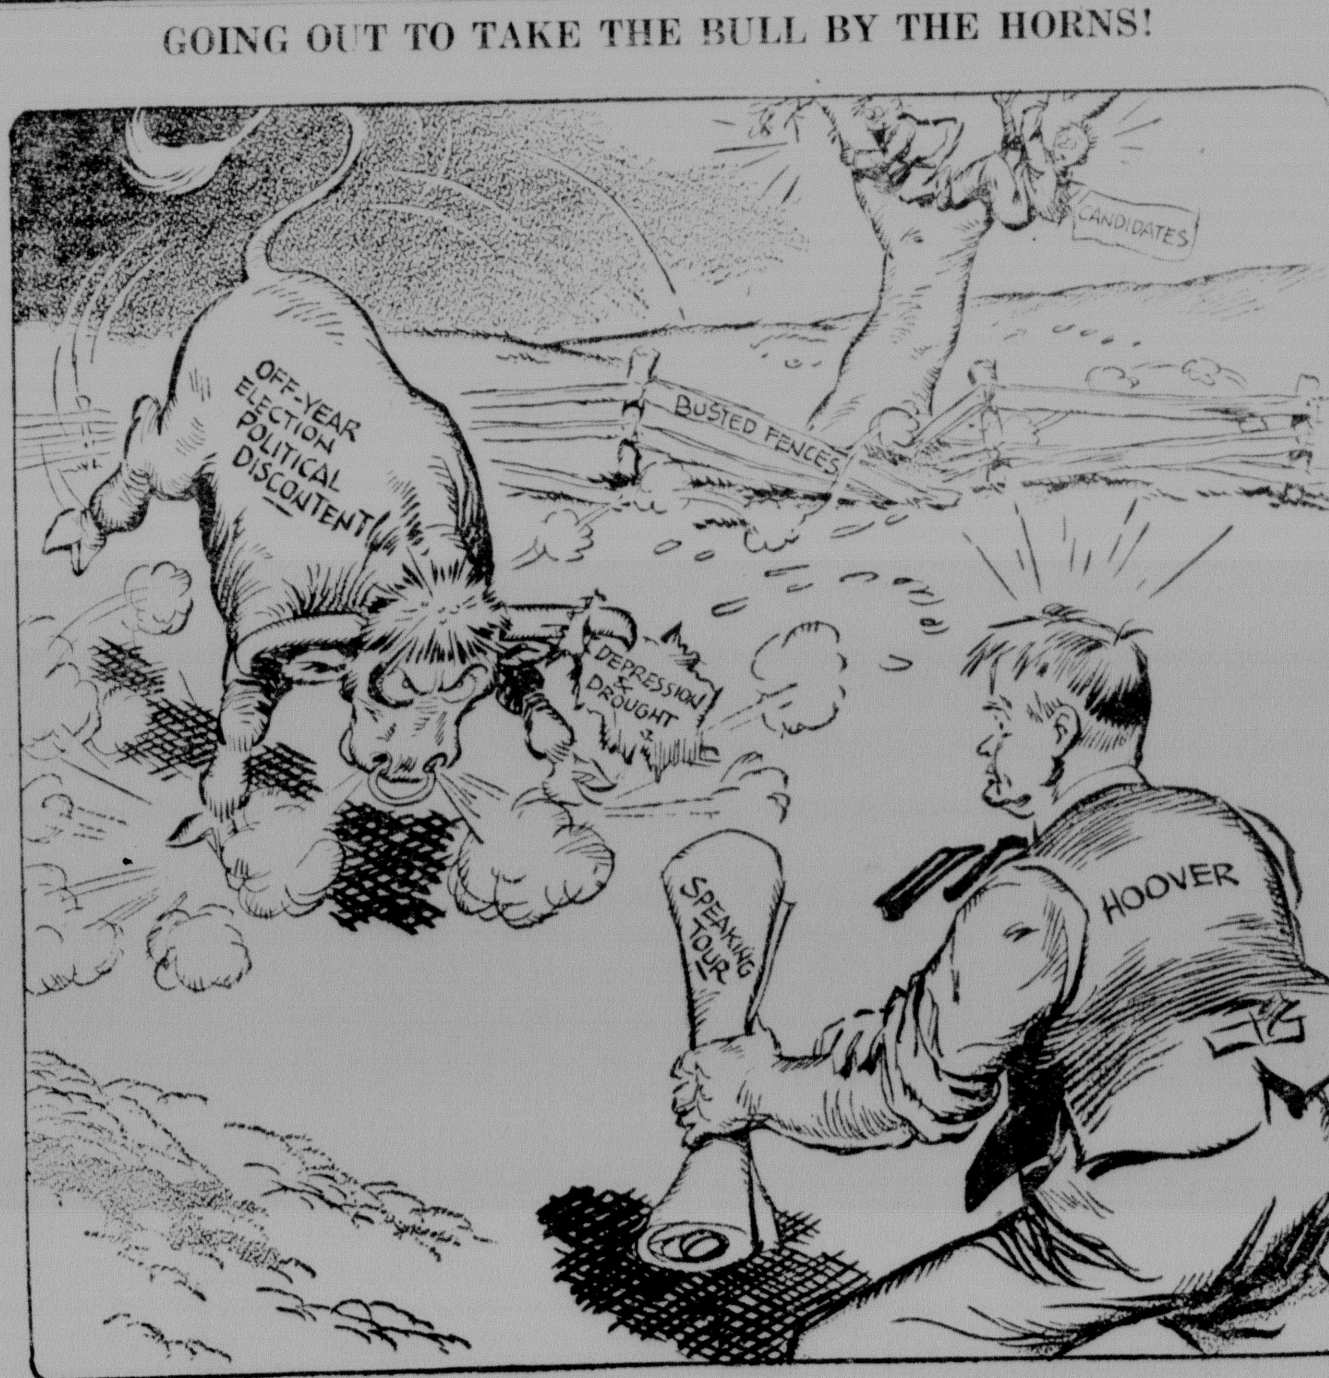

It is the general opinion that there will be enough grain raised in this county to care for the demand, provided all that is sown can be kept in the county until it is needed.

Training School Starts Enrolling Friday Morning

Professor F. E. Savage, head of the Training School at the College announces that enrollment at the Training School will begin Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

The faculty for the Training School has been secured and they are looking forward to a successful year for that department of the College.

Canyon Schools to Dismiss for Fair Thursday

Irby Carruth, school superintendent, announces that Thursday, September 25, will be an open holiday for the entire student body to attend the Tri-State Fair on the day set aside for Canyon day at the Panhandle exposition.

Mr. Carruth states that the faculty will appreciate the co-operation of the parents in attending the Fair on Thursday if at all possible. He asks that parents do not take their children out of classes to attend the fair on other days during the week. This disrupts the class work and interferes with the program of the school. Therefore, in order that all school students be given an opportunity to attend the fair the holiday on Canyon day is being declared.

The law clearly states the manner in which motor vehicles should be lighted after dark and the public sentiment for the enforcement of the law to the letter should be so strong that law enforcement officers should be demanded to enforce the law to the letter with favors extended to none and without fear of anyone. When the offender is haled into court those in charge should assess a penalty so heavy that such an offense will not occur the second time.

YEARS DO NOT WORRY J. E. ANDERSEN

Apparently the years are, not weighing heavily on either J. E. Andersen or his mount, as evidenced by their activities Wednesday. Mr. Andersen, who is four score years and one, and who lives 7½ miles from the city, arrived in town Wednesday astride his horse who has reached the ripe age of 23 years.

Mr. Andersen has lived in this community for 20 years and is by birth a Swede. He came to the United States in 1864.

Upchurch Offers $5.00 for Potatoes

The price of Randall county grown Irish potatoes are going up. At the price offered by W. H. Upchurch for a half bushel of home grown potatoes, of quality good enough to display at the Tri-State Fair, gives the market an upward trend.

In order to complete the Randall county exhibit at the Tri-State Fair, County Agent Upchurch will give $5.00 for a half bushel of Irish potatoes, if they are good enough to add to his display, provided they were grown in Randall county and are delivered to his office not later than Saturday night.

T. & P. Surveyors Run Line West of Canyon to Amarillo

Surveyors for the proposed T. & P. railroad extension have been in Randall county the past week, and are working on a line which would cross the Santa Fe about six miles west of Canyon, going into Amarillo. This is said by the foreman to be a preliminary line, although he intimates that instructions are that the road, if built would miss Canyon.

Chamber of Commerce officials in talking with the surveyors were told that T. & P. officials had been informed that Canyon was hostile to the new road, and would oppose its coming into the city. Where this impression had been gained, they were unable to state.

The surveyors were informed that no action had been taken in Canyon either for or against the extension. It has been stated that should the road be granted a permit to build that the logical route was for the T. & P. to build into Canyon, and then use the Santa Fe double track into Amarillo.

A meeting was held in Austin this week by those interested in the proposed extension of the railroad, and the support of the Texas railroad commission, the attorney general and the governor was enlisted in the project.

So far no official action has been taken in Amarillo to sponsor the new line.

T. & P. officials have been working in various counties along the proposed line, seeking the right-of-way. So far nothing has been asked in Randall county. The officials state that all they will ask is the gift of the right-of-way and the terminal facilities.

Improvements Are Made at Whiteway

Mr. Walsh will continue to operate the Whiteway Grocery and Cabins as he has heretofore.

COLLEGE STARTS ENROLLMENT ON FRIDAY MORNING

FRESHMEN ENROLL FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Upperclassmen Enroll Monday and Tuesday; Regular Classes Meet Wednesday.

The twenty-first annual long term of the West Texas State Teachers College will be well under way when several hundred Freshmen from all sections of the Panhandle begin enrolling at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The first faculty meeting was held today, with the entire faculty present, including all new members. The faculty meeting marked the beginning of the opening activities of the fall term.

Tomorrow and Saturday will be consumed by registration of the Freshmen and the holding of entrance examinations. The Freshmen will have full sway at the college over the week end. The first assembly will be held at 11 o'clock Friday morning, with Registrar D. A. Shirley and Dean R. P. Jarrett in charge of the assembly.

At 8 p. m. Friday the Freshmen will be the guests of W. J. Wooten at the annual theater party at the Olympic Theater. A second assembly will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 with President Hill delivering the principal address.

Separate meetings for Freshmen boys and girls will be held from 2:30 to 3:30 p. m. Saturday. Mr. Cook will be in charge of the boys meeting and Miss Graham will be in charge of the girls. A watermelon feast will be served on the Campus late Saturday evening with Dr. Pierle in charge.

On Monday the Sophomores and upperclassmen will begin enrolling. Monday will be moving up day for the Sophomores with the meeting for that ceremony to be held at 4:30 p. m. On Tuesday the first chapel program will be given.

Regular classes will begin meeting Wednesday morning. On Saturday evening following the faculty will give a reception to the students.

Indications point to a good enrollment at the college this year. There are comparatively few vacant houses in Canyon, which may be regarded as a strong indication of a heavy attendance at the College.

County Removed From List of Drouth Counties

Randall county has been removed from the list of drouth suffering counties in West Texas according to information received here from Washington by County Agent W. H. Upchurch.

In a message addressed to the county agent the drouth relief commission stated, "Certification of your county for reduced railroad rates has been suspended pending further investigation."

For some unknown reason all counties in West Texas were placed on the list of Texas counties needing drouth relief, including all Panhandle counties. Although Randall county has felt the drouth and the rainfall has been far below normal the point has not reached a stage of distress.

In reply to the message from Washington, Mr. Upchurch wired the government officials as follows: "Randall county crops are short, however, we expect no distress or serious food shortage."

It is the general opinion that there will be enough grain raised in this county to care for the demand, provided all that is sown can be kept in the county until it is needed.

Training School Starts Enrolling Friday Morning

Professor F. E. Savage, head of the Training School at the College announces that enrollment at the Training School will begin Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

All children who expect to attend the training school during the coming year are requested to be present Friday morning for enrollment and classification. This will include everyone from the kindergarten through the high school.

The faculty for the Training School has been secured and they are looking forward to a successful year for that department of the College.

Jim Ferguson is putting out feelers hoping to start a bolt against the Democratic party in the general election in November. After being soundly whipped in the primary, Jim does not seem to be satisfied. He hopes that a sufficient number of his followers will advise him to start the bolt against Ross Sterling in November. Dr. Butte, republican nominee, was the republican candidate when an attempt was made six years ago to defeat Mrs. Ferguson in the general election. Nothing would please Old Jim more than to organize a campaign against Sterling, whom he charges with having been a bolt at that time, and again in the Hoover-Smith fight of two years ago. If Ferguson wants to kick over the traces in November, well and good. A fight against Sterling will assure a large vote in the November election, which in ordinary times is a very quiet affair. Four constitutional amendments are to be voted upon in November, and Jim will do the state a real service if he stirs up the voters to go to the polls in November so that a respectable vote will be cast on these amendments.

Frank Baldwin, newspaper man and legislator from Waco, charges that West Texas is knocking at the door of the state seeking help for drought relief, and goes further to charge that West Texas is always trying to get its hand in the pocket of the state treasury. Frank is badly mistaken in his so-called facts. If he will tell the truth about things, he will find that West Texas has always given more than it has ever received. Frank is one of the few members of the House who thought it perfectly right and proper that a bunch of Austin Land-grabbers take away from the citizens of West Texas the land for which they had paid. Defeated twice on this bill, Frank assumed the hostile role against all of West Texas. Incidentally he is one of the members of the House who was always absent unless some pet measure of his was up for consideration, or Dan Moody sent for him to vote for an administration measure.

Canyon and Randall county have too many reckless drivers. Trucks and cars are driving the highway without lights, or with only one light, and are parking along the highways without tail lights. Too many accidents have occurred. No one has been fatally injured, although several people have been badly injured, and will carry the scars through the remainder of their lives. Both Randall county and the city of Canyon have traffic officers, who should be on the job to stop such practices. If the county and city do not have enough officers, more should be employed. A strenuous campaign for two or three months, with fearless prosecution of offenders will clear the streets and highways of these offenders.

Some one placed every county on the Plains in the drought stricken territory, including Randall county. The rank injustice was exposed when protest was made to Washington against including the Plains territory in the drought territory. While all the Plains country may be said to have a short crop this year, no one is going to starve to death, or be in want as a result of the drought which extends to so great a part of the United States. There is going to be business as usual on the Plains, but not quite so much as there would have been with a bumper crop. The Plains country was not placed on the want list by anyone living here, or by the consent of anyone living in this great territory.

It seems that a strenuous effort will be made this year at the Tri-State Fair to bump W. H. Upchurch, exhibitor for Randall county, out of first place which he has held for the past two years. Randall county has been a consistent winner of high places at the Tri-State Fair, and has more first places to its credit than any county on the Plains. We are not going to holler hard times if Randall does not win this year, but just want to say that whoever beats Upchurch and Randall county, if such should be the case, will have some exhibit. Come on fellows, competition is fine.

Canyon's Trades Day will be held Sept. 29th. The continued life of the monthly Trades Day will depend very large upon the results of that day. Every merchant should see to it that he has real bargains to offer. People of Randall county should be in Canyon on that date in order to take advantage of the bargains. Let's make Sept. 29th a real bargain day in Canyon.

C. E. Redlich, Minneapolis, Minn., nationally famous Rupture Appliance Expert, will demonstrate without charge his unequalled method at Amarillo, Sunday and Monday, Sept. 28 and 29 at the Herring Hotel from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Mr. C. E. Redlich says: The "Perfect Retention Shields" hold the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief and contract the opening in a remarkable short time.

The secret of their success is in their simplicity. An expertly adjusted device seals the opening without discomfort or detention from work. It is practically everlasting, sanitary, comfortable and actually holds ruptures which heretofore were considered uncontrollable.

"IF YOU WANT TO HAVE IT DONE RIGHT—SEE REDLICH."

Doctor J. W. Seaver, for many years in charge of the Physical Education of the students of Yale College, has recorded 75% cures with this system.

Nothing will help instill thrift into your youngsters more than to start them out with bank accounts of their own.

You will have to make the deposits at first—but get them interested!

Then as soon as they are old enough to earn a little money of their own, encourage them to put a part of it in their savings accounts.

When they grow up they will appreciate the value of money, and realize the helpful influence of a bank book.

Hand Signals While Driving

The judicious use of the hand signal when driving an automobile is a safety precaution which entails no hardship on the driver. One who becomes accustomed to its use does it almost reflexively.

It wasn't but a few days ago that a good lady made an abrupt turn across a highway to drive into a farm yard. Another car was in the act of passing her at the time she made the turn. She gave no signal of her intended change of direction and the result might have been much more serious than the two dented fenders, if the car passing had not been driven by an alert and competent driver.

A worker on an adjoining desk is out seventy dollars or more for repairs on her car, which was damaged when one driving a car made a turn similar to that mentioned above, without the use of the arm or other signal to indicate that he intended changing his direction.

The hand signals are simple. Anyone competent of driving a car can learn them in a few minutes, if he should happen to be in the very small minority that does not understand their use already.

Every stop, every intended change in direction has a definite simple signal. The use of the hand signal has such obvious advantages it is strange that it has not become universal, as it should.

A well known story lady of the radio was talking with a class of youngsters before the microphone when a small boy got a spark from a minor electrical apparatus and let out a squeal. "What's that you said?" asked the lady calmly. "I said damn," replied the youngster so that thousands heard, "and I mean it."

LINCOLN AND STANTON

Lincoln's reliance upon Stanton, his great Secretary of War, is well known. They did not always agree, however, and Stanton seems to have felt entirely free to oppose his chief upon occasion.

Some official correspondence dug up by a writer for the Boston Herald is remarkable for its illustration of this point, as well as being an indication that few words were wasted by these giants in making their respective views known. It seems that Lincoln wanted a certain man appointed an Army chaplain. Stanton objected, with apparent success, as the correspondence quoted indicates:

"Dear Stanton: Appoint this man chaplain in the Army. A. Lincoln."

"Dear Mr. Lincoln: He is not a preacher. E. M. Stanton."

"Dear Stanton: He is now. A. Lincoln."

"Dear Mr. Lincoln: But there is no vacancy. E. M. Stanton."

"Dear Stanton: Appoint him chaplain-at-large. A. Lincoln."

"Dear Mr. Lincoln: There is no warrant in law for that. E. M. Stanton."

"Dear Stanton: Appoint him anyway. A. Lincoln."

"Dear Mr. President: I will not. E. M. Stanton."

Clark Returns From Visit to Music Teachers

Wallace R. Clark, head of the music department, has just returned from a trip on which he had conferences with Robert H. Berryhill and Miss Margaret Justice who are to be members of the music faculty this year. Mr. Clark stated he was much pleased to have secured these two people as members of his faculty.

Mr. Berryhill who will take Miss Pauline Brigham's place for this session, has an unusually large concert repertoire, having given twenty-four radio programs over an Austin station last year, in addition to his radio experience at Phoenix, Arizona.

A graduate of Colorado College, at Colorado Springs, where he had much work with Dean Hale, a pupil of Bugoslavski and Stojowski, a successful teacher of piano, an experienced music club worker, Berryhill is splendidly fitted for the variety of work which is asked of a member of the piano department of the College.

Miss Margaret Justice is enthusiastic over the prospect of working at Canyon. She comes from the faculty of Texas Woman's College; she has been a pupil of Clyde Whitlock, dean of Texas violinists, for ten years. She has been concert-master of the Ft. Worth Conservatory orchestra, and for the past year has played first viola in the Texas Light and Power Co's. Symphony Orchestra, which is one of the best radio symphony orchestras in the Southwest.

Other members of the music department are besides W. R. Clark, head of the department, Miss Hazel Allen and Miss Alice Dawes, piano; Miss Ada Clark, public school music, and C. E. Strain, band instruments.

Miss Wilmoth Gamble left Monday for Lubbock where she will be a guest of Miss Faye Hunt for several days.

Old Bullets Are Donated to Museum

Bullets of a 40-70 buffalo gun which have lain on the ground unexploded since 1872, were brought to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum recently by Terrell Christian of Claude, Texas.

These bullets were found on the JA Ranch three miles east of the headquarters. Jim Wilson, an employee of the ranch for many years says that these are the first unexploded cartridges of this type which have ever been found there. In 1889, J. T. Christian picked up many exploded shells on the same site. It is supposed that these were from guns used in a battle with the Indians in 1872.

Ex-Students Will Handle Booth of College at Fair

The booth of the West Texas State Teachers College at the Tri-State Fair will be under the direction of the Ex-Students' Association, according to L. N. George, secretary of the organization.

It is planned to have a member of the college faculty present at the booth at all times during the fair, as well as several ex-students of the college.

It is also planned to show the movies which were made by Travis Shaw, showing scenes about the college campus and views of the Duro Canyons. This feature no doubt will make the college booth one of the most attractive exhibits at the fair. The pictures which were shown at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Abilene received much comment over the entire state.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hagen of Saint Jo, Texas, and Mrs. Lester Turner and daughter of Amarillo visited friends here Sunday.

Miss Gladys Beavers returned Sunday from Plainview where she has been visiting her parents the past week.

Additions Are Made to Relics of P-P Society

Anticipating the early erection of a building for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, donations continue to come in daily from persons who have valuable objects to contribute.

Mrs. David Thomas, whose deceased husband was one of the best known citizens of the early Panhandle, has recently made several donations to the society.

Another recent gift was a photograph showing the first street grading in the town of Plainview, in 1900. G. W. Syms of Hereford was the donor and he and R. M. Erick, H. S. Syms and a Mr. Wells are shown in the picture.

The officers of the Historical Society hope in time to have an excellent collection of the different kinds of timepieces which have been used on the American frontier. The latest addition is a clock, made by the Waterbury people, purchased in 1874 at Mooreburg, Hawkins county, Tennessee by John Painter, who presented it to his bride, Mrs. Sallie Painter, now of Happy, Texas, who has given it to the Historical Society. It will take its place with a clock which has been running for 130 years. An antique grandfather clock has been promised the museum as soon as a building is secured.

With the recent clock, came an old brass kettle, bought at the same place in 1884; it is in excellent repair, seemingly as good as when purchased. It will form part of a collection that includes pieces which could tell the story of migrations from the New England seaboard to the extreme southwest. The kettle was the gift of Mrs. J. F. White of Happy.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Livingston returned last week from Colorado where they have been visiting in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Sonny Rusk.

Thursday to be Canyon Day at Tri-State Fair

According to advices received from the offices of the Tri-State Fair yesterday morning, Thursday, September 25, has been designated as Canyon Day at the annual exposition in Amarillo.

Hundreds of Canyon people will flock to the fair on that day to view the cream of Panhandle farm exhibits and industrial displays. Indications, so far, fair officials state, are that the fair of 1930 will eclipse any ever held in Amarillo.

Along with Canyon people thousands from all parts of the Plains south of the Fort Worth and Denver railway, will attend the fair Thursday. On Monday the opening day, Amarillo will celebrate as Amarillo day at the fair. Schools will be dismissed and all business houses will close at noon. Tuesday will be North Plains day and Wednesday will be open for Old Settlers. All towns south of the Fort Worth and Denver Railway have Thursday set aside by fair officials as their day at the fair. Friday will be New Mexico and Oklahoma day, as well as country school children's day. Saturday, the closing day will be Traveling Men's day.

The Tri-State Fair is one of the largest fairs in the country to have a free gate. The free gate policy was adopted several years ago and during that time it has proven to be so successful that it is still continued by fair officials.

Canyon Public Schools will be dismissed for Canyon day. Superintendent Carruth states, in order that the school students will be given an opportunity to spend an entire day at the fair.

A large number of the business firms will close Thursday to take in the fair. L. N. George, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce announced this morning, following a canvass of the merchants in town. Those who do not close plan to arrange for as many of their personnel as possible to attend. A number of the firms will remain closed all day, while others will be closed only a part of the day. It is announced that the barber shops will remain open until 11 o'clock. Those who plan to attend the fair are urged to do so on Thursday and thereby make it much easier for the firms who desire to close for the day.

SEEK TO ORGANIZE COMMUNITY CHEST IN CITY

For the purpose of better controlling the charity appeals of the city, a meeting has been called for Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock of the pastors and representatives of all clubs and organizations in the city for the purpose of organizing a community chest.

Rev. C. E. Jameson has called the meeting, and explained the organization to the Rotary Club at the luncheon Tuesday. It is not for the purpose of raising money, as the city and county have authorized the pastors in this matter, and several charity cases have been taking care of in the past through the ministerial association.

Mr. Jameson points out that begging on the streets should be discouraged, and that those in need should apply to the proper authorities, which will be the community chest, if it is organized Sunday.

The work proposed will largely be that of collecting and distributing clothing and supplies to those living in the city, and who are found to be needy.

COUNTY SCHOOLS ENROLL 499

The total enrollment in all of Randall County's rural schools is short of the 500 mark by one. There are 499 pupils listed on the rolls of the rural schools of this county according to Judge B. F. Pronabarger, county school superintendent. All of the schools opened last week and according to reports they are all moving along nicely by this time.

W. C. T. U. SPEAKER HERE

Mrs. Leora Lobban Brewer, representing the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, will speak at the Methodist church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. An invitation is extended to the public to hear her.

Large Number to Attend Tri-State Fair at Amarillo

The largest crowd ever sent from here to the Tri-State Exposition at Amarillo will represent this city at the coming Panhandle fete, September 22 to 27, an early check indicates.

Interest in the exposition is greater this year than ever before, if talk of plans to attend is to be accepted as an indication.

Advance information from Amarillo is to the effect that the Tri-State Exposition this year is to be the best ever. Thousands of dollars have been spent in making ready; new buildings have been constructed and improvements made on the grounds.

Besides the high class amusement features, including Leonard Stroud and the Anvil Park Rodeo each afternoon, the Spanish Nights entertainment in front of the grandstand in the evenings, and the Beckmann & Gerety midway, including twenty shows and fourteen rides, the fair offers many new attractions.

Foremost among these is the automobile show to be staged in the new Automobile Building, just completed. Every member of the Panhandle Automotive Association will have cars on display and this show will match, in every respect except for size the New York and Chicago motor shows.

Record entries already are predicted in the beef cattle, dairy cattle, swine, poultry and agricultural exhibits, including many from this county.

MAJESTIC RADIOS

Why your RADIO should be
MAJESTIC

Within a very short time Majestic has become the biggest selling radio due to very definite reasons. May we emphasize the tremendous business enjoyed by Majestic by stating that the first year this set was on the market, there have been $150,000,000 worth of Majestics sold. The manufacturers of Majestic have become the biggest producers of radio sets in the world. Why?

Because the tone quality of a Majestic is beyond question of doubt the finest in the market today, due to fidelity of reception and the ability to transmit true every note in the entire scale. There is no distortion, vibration or oscillation. When you hear an artist through a Majestic it is the same as hearing them standing in front of you.

Because you have knife-like selectivity. A powerful local station can usually be tuned out within 10 kilocycles. No other radio can approach Majestic's selectivity.

Because of unexcelled sensitivity. With adjustment as fine as the most costly watch but with the stability to hold that adjustment. The enormous power of the set coupled with this fine adjustment makes it more sensitive than any radio on the market.

Because there is no hum from power pack or electric current. When not tuned into a station it is unbelievably quiet.

Clark Returns From Visit to Music Teachers

Wallace R. Clark, head of the music department, has just returned from a trip on which he had conferences with Robert H. Berryhill and Miss Margaret Justice who are to be members of the music faculty this year. Mr. Clark stated he was much pleased to have secured these two people as members of his faculty.

Mr. Berryhill who will take Miss Pauline Brigham's place for this session, has an unusually large concert repertoire, having given twenty-four radio programs over an Austin station last year, in addition to his radio experience at Phoenix, Arizona.

A graduate of Colorado College, at Colorado Springs, where he had much work with Dean Hale, a pupil of Bugoslavski and Stojowski, a successful teacher of piano, an experienced music club worker, Berryhill is splendidly fitted for the variety of work which is asked of a member of the piano department of the College.

Miss Margaret Justice is enthusiastic over the prospect of working at Canyon. She comes from the faculty of Texas Woman's College; she has been a pupil of Clyde Whitlock, dean of Texas violinists, for ten years. She has been concert-master of the Ft. Worth Conservatory orchestra, and for the past year has played first viola in the Texas Light and Power Co's. Symphony Orchestra, which is one of the best radio symphony orchestras in the Southwest.

Other members of the music department are besides W. R. Clark, head of the department, Miss Hazel Allen and Miss Alice Dawes, piano; Miss Ada Clark, public school music, and C. E. Strain, band instruments.

Miss Wilmoth Gamble left Monday for Lubbock where she will be a guest of Miss Faye Hunt for several days.

Old Bullets Are Donated to Museum

Bullets of a 40-70 buffalo gun which have lain on the ground unexploded since 1872, were brought to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum recently by Terrell Christian of Claude, Texas.

These bullets were found on the JA Ranch three miles east of the headquarters. Jim Wilson, an employee of the ranch for many years says that these are the first unexploded cartridges of this type which have ever been found there. In 1889, J. T. Christian picked up many exploded shells on the same site. It is supposed that these were from guns used in a battle with the Indians in 1872.

Ex-Students Will Handle Booth of College at Fair

The booth of the West Texas State Teachers College at the Tri-State Fair will be under the direction of the Ex-Students' Association, according to L. N. George, secretary of the organization.

It is planned to have a member of the college faculty present at the booth at all times during the fair, as well as several ex-students of the college.

It is also planned to show the movies which were made by Travis Shaw, showing scenes about the college campus and views of the Palo Duro Canyons. This feature no doubt will make the college booth one of the most attractive exhibits at the fair. The pictures which were shown at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Abilene received much comment over the entire state.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hagen of Saint Jo, Texas, and Mrs. Lester Turner and daughter of Amarillo visited friends here Sunday.

Miss Gladys Beavers returned Sunday from Plainview where she has been visiting her parents the past week.

Additions Are Made to Relics of P-P Society

Anticipating the early erection of a building for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, donations continue to come in daily from persons who have valuable objects to contribute.

Mrs. David Thomas, whose deceased husband was one of the best known citizens of the early Panhandle, has recently made several donations to the society.

Another recent gift was a photograph showing the first street grading in the town of Plainview, in 1900. G. W. Syms of Hereford was the donor and he and R. M. Irick, H. S. Syms and a Mr. Wells are shown in the picture.

The officers of the Historical Society hope in time to have an excellent collection of the different kinds of timepieces which have been used on the American frontier. The latest addition is a clock, made by the Waterbury people, purchased in 1874 at Mooresburg, Hawkins county, Tennessee by John Painter, who presented it to his bride, Mrs. Sallie Painter, now of Happy, Texas, who has given it to the Historical Society. It will take its place with a clock which has been running for 130 years. An antique grandfather clock has been promised the museum as soon as a building is secured.

With the recent clock, came an old brass kettle, bought at the same place in 1884; it is in excellent repair, seemingly as good as when purchased. It will form part of a collection that includes pieces which could tell the story of migrations from the New England seaboard to the extreme southwest. The kettle was the gift of Mrs. J. P. White of Happy.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Livingston returned last week from Colorado where they have been visiting in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Sonny Rusk.

Thursday to be Canyon Day at Tri-State Fair

According to advices received from the offices of the Tri-State Fair yesterday morning, Thursday, September 25, has been designated as Canyon Day at the annual exposition in Amarillo.

Hundreds of Canyon people will flock to the fair on that day to view the cream of Panhandle farm exhibits and industrial displays. Indications, so far, fair officials state, are that the fair of 1930 will eclipse any ever held in Amarillo.

Along with Canyon people thousands from all parts of the Plains south of the Fort Worth and Denver railway, will attend the fair Thursday. On Monday the opening day, Amarillo will celebrate as Amarillo day at the fair. Schools will be dismissed and all business houses will close at noon. Tuesday will be North Plains day and Wednesday will be open for Old Settlers. All towns south of the Fort Worth and Denver Railway have Thursday set aside by fair officials as their day at the fair. Friday will be New Mexico and Oklahoma day, as well as country school children's day. Saturday, the closing day will be Traveling Men's day.

The Tri-State Fair is one of the largest fairs in the country to have a free gate. The free gate policy was adopted several years ago and during that time it has proven to be so successful that it is still continued by fair officials.

Canyon Public Schools will be dismissed for Canyon day. Superintendent Carruth states, in order that the school students will be given an opportunity to spend an entire day at the fair.

A large number of the business firms will close Thursday to take in the fair. L. N. George, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce announced this morning, following a canvass of the merchants in town. Those who do not close plan to arrange for as many of their personnel as possible to attend. A number of the firms will remain closed all day, while others will be closed only a part of the day. It is announced that the barber shops will remain open until 11 o'clock. Those who plan to attend the fair are urged to do so on Thursday and thereby make it much easier for the firms who desire to close for the day.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

VOLUME NO. 5

CANYON, TEXAS, SEPT. 18, 1930

CACTUS CAL

Wandering and wondering Fish are naturally the topic of the day. Many a poor Fish has already suffered at the hands of an upper-classman.

"Say, fellow, where's Room 13?" is a frequent question and is frequently answered "Slime talkies are in the attic. Address your superiors as Mister."

It strikes me that these Freshmen wouldn't be so anxious to enter Room 13 (the Slime English) if they knew what was in store for them. I know because I've had more than enough.

Still you will find a bright fish once in a while; why look back three years and see me, for instance.

The present Slimes aren't so dumb.

One day some Solems were in a room where there were some Fish. The seniors were saying they were in the right room when in walked a freshman teacher and started conducting the class.

Oh well—miracles do happen.

KONJOLA VERY MEDICINE THIS LADY REQUIRED

She Rejoices Over Wonderful Relief From Indigestion—Happy to Endorse New Medicine.

MRS. ALMA WEBSTER

"I had stomach trouble for a year and a half," said Mrs. Alma Webster, 5017 Avenue R, Galveston. "Each meal brought pain for my food was not properly digested. Gas formed after every meal at times making me very ill. There were many things I did not dare eat because of the condition of my stomach."

"I kept reading in the papers about Konjola and what it was doing for so many people that I began the treatment. Konjola has so improved my condition that I have not had a sick nor dizzy spell since I began taking the medicine. I can eat anything I wish without fear of subsequent misery. I have improved in general health and am happy to endorse this medicine because of what it has done for me."

Sufferers do not have long to wait after taking Konjola before relief comes. However, a six to eight bottle treatment is suggested for the average case.

Konjola is sold in Canyon, Texas, at the Jarrett Drug Co., drug store, and by the best druggists in all towns through this entire section.

CANYON EAGLES TIE HAPPY JACKS IN FIRST GAME OF SEASON AT BUFFALO STADIUM

CANYON EAGLES IN TIE WITH HAPPY; NO OFFICIAL DECISION GIVEN TO DATE.

The Canyon Eagles and the Happy Jacks tied up in a fast game here Friday at the Buffalo stadium. Since the Eagles crossed the Jacks' twenty-yard line four times to the two times the He-Haws crossed the Eagles' twenty, it is supposed that the game will be given to Canyon. Roy Bedichek, head of the Texas will make the decision.

The most spectacular run was made by the Canyon fullback, Wooten, who returned a punt 50 yards to the Jacks 21 yard line. The Eagles' second best run, of 20 yards, was made by Strain. The Jacks' longest run was 20 yards made by "Worm" Moran.

Thomas, Canyon's right tackle, took the Jacks for their biggest loss when he tackled a Happy man for a 15 yard loss. Strain made the next best tackle, setting the Jacks on their ear 7 yards behind the scrimmage line.

Canyon fumbled 8 times and recovered the ball on 3 of their own fumbles. Happy fumbled one time. Canyon attempted to pass 4 times; completed one for 11 yards; 2 were incomplete and one was intercepted. The Jacks attempted 3; completed 1 for 7 yards and 2 were incomplete.

The line-ups:

CANYON	qb	HAPPY	Rea
Strain	qb	Barnard
Cabe	rh	Vernon
Elliston	lh	Robinson
Wooten	fb	D. Bowe
Hardin (c)	re	Boyd
Foster	rt	Guest
Tucker	rg	V. Bowe
Taylor	c	Lockett
Miller	lg	Porvin
Thomas	lt	C. Morgan

The substitutions for Canyon were: Middleton for Thomas; Stratton for Elliston. Happy substitutions were: W. Morgan for Rea.

MISS EDWARDS ENTERTAINS

A number of high school students were delightfully entertained at the home of Vera Edwards last Friday evening.

The guest list included: Bobbie Campbell, Bill Strain, Douglas Henson, Willard Middleton, Herbert Slack, "Red" Hardin, Tommie Elliston, Jack Cox, Leroy Lowry, Hoesa Foster, Ogden Stroud, Wilford Taylor, Clarence Wooten, Kayte B. Lowe, Celestine McGee, Lucille Davault, Elizabeth Jameson, Elizabeth Paulkner, Bettye Sternburg and Lois Tackett of Happy.

Punch was served through the evening.

JUNIORS

The junior class has increased slightly and now holds the position of second in the high school enrollment. The juniors have high aims and fair prospects for the coming year. They expect to do many things (putting over a junior queen for instance). Beware seniors, you are going to have competition.

Chapel Program Features Dedication of Curtain

The first chapel program of this school year was a very interesting one.

The gift of last year's senior class, a velvet curtain for the stage, was presented to the school and a short talk of presentation and dedication was made by Dorothy Faye Rusk, president of the 1930 class.

All of the new teachers were introduced to the student body, and Mr. Carruth announced the game with Happy, Friday. Following this program was a short, but pep-py pep meeting.

C. H. S. Peps Meet and Elect Yell Leaders

The Purple Peps had their first meeting this year, Tuesday at noon. We practiced pep songs and yells. The pep songs and yells were practiced again Wednesday at noon. Another pep meeting was held Thursday at noon for the purpose of electing officers. Katy B. Lowe was elected president.

Charles Wiseman secretary and treasurer, and "Bib" Jameson and Lucille Davault yell leaders. We are proud of our peppy yell leaders. The pep squad practiced yells and songs again Friday at noon for the game that afternoon with Happy. All the girls seemed enthusiastic over the game. We are glad to have the new students in High School this year to be members of the pep squad. Although all the girls do not have pep suits now, we are hoping to have them soon.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Miss Scott, the new public school music instructor, gave private try-outs for girls' glee club Thursday. Twenty-eight girls were tried and Miss Scott says she is fairly well pleased with the prospects.

This glee club work is very instructive and pleasant for both boys and girls. The class meets twice a week. They will work up a public appearance most likely a cantata or musical comedy.

The band also met for the first time Thursday night. Twenty people reported but a larger enrollment is expected. Miss Scott intends to start the junior band to work next week.

Home Ec Dept. To Be Used By Prac. Teachers

The Home Economics department, headed by Mrs. Brady, is composed of forty-nine students who are divided into three classes. From all indications they promise to make their department one of the most interesting in school.

The first year class looks quite gay in its green, pink, yellow and orchid smocks. They have made (most are still making) these themselves. The first week was nearly all spent in study before work on these smocks was begun.

CANYON PUBLIC SCHOOLS HAVE RECORD ENROLLMENT MAKE CHANGES IN FACULTY

FACULTY COMES TO CANYON FROM MANY DIFFERENT PLACES.

Canyon High said "hello" to quite a number of new instructors this term. The grade school faculty also has a great many new members this year. A large number of the faculty returned from last year have spent the summer months doing advanced work and have something entirely new to offer the students.

The high school attendance has gained just about as much as it did last year. The enrollment is now about 235. The sophomore class ranks highest with 74 marked on record.

The grade school has a record attendance by a slight margin, 468. This increase is accounted for by the fact that the six-year-olds are accepted this year. There are 60 in this six-year-old group. The seventh grade has the largest enrollment of 84.

Mr. Carruth, superintendent, has spent the summer studying in the University of Chicago.

Mr. T. H. McDonald is our principal again this year.

The history department is in charge of Miss Rusk and Coach Brady.

Mr. Brady is new this year and also serves in the capacity of athletic coach. He comes from Anadarko, Okla. He did his college work at Oklahoma University and Southwestern Teachers College.

The English department consists of Miss Margarette Dickinson, Miss Mattie Jordan (both returned) and Mrs. Leroy Landers. Mrs. Landers is from West Texas State Teachers College.

Miss Grace Clark and Mr. McDonald conduct math classes. Miss Clark is just back from Peabody, at Nashville, Tenn., where she has been studying.

Misses Foster and Jordan are in charge of the language department. Miss Jordan teaches Latin and Miss Foster teaches Spanish. The manual training department is headed by Mr. O. T. Barker from E. T. S. T. C., Commerce, Texas.

Mrs. Edgar Brady teaches Home Economics and Physical Education for girls.

Mrs. Foster and Miss Weter give private lessons in music and public speaking.

Mr. Fox, from Simmons, Abilene, Texas, has charge of the Science department.

Mrs. Collins, Miss Thorpe of Stamford, and Miss McMurray teach the first grades.

The opening of the Public High School of Canyon marked one of the most important events of the year, 1930. Monday, September 8, is significant to the 1930-31 class of seniors as the beginning of the end of their high school days. To the freshmen it denotes the commencement of their high school career. To the sophomores it is only the second year of high school and the juniors say, "next year we'll be seniors!"

Always with the opening of school there are many old students returning and a number of new ones coming to Canyon High School for the first time. There are always some old and some new instructors. When we think of all the work ahead—planned for us by the faculty—the opening of school loses some of its wonderful aspect. Some where close to the opening of school is the detention list. Library fines begin and work begins, but before long—to atone for all this—school social activities begin, proving to us that school is not such a bore after all.

McClanahan each teach a third grade section, while Miss Anice Smith and Miss Gamble teach fourth grades.

Mrs. Merle and Mrs. Beason have the second grades in hand.

In the fifth, sixth and seventh grades where departmental work is done, Mrs. Davis teaches arithmetic; Mr. Thompson, history; Miss Wharton, reading; Miss Watts, geography; and Miss Goodrich, English.

Miss Scott, of Waterville, Kansas has charge of the public school music, boys and girls glee club, band, junior band and orchestra work.

Mrs. C. E. Strain is principal of the ward school. This is her third term to occupy this position.

On the whole, Mr. Carruth states that our faculty this year is one of the best and most efficient the school has ever known.

CANYON EAGLES TIE HAPPY JACKS IN FIRST GAME OF SEASON AT BUFFALO STADIUM

CANYON EAGLES IN TIE WITH HAPPY. NO OFFICIAL DECISION GIVEN TO DATE.

The Canyon Eagles and the Happy Jacks tied up in a fast game here Friday at the Buffalo stadium. Since the Eagles crossed the Jacks' twenty-yard line four times to the two times the He-Haws crossed the Eagles' twenty, it is supposed that the game will be given to Canyon. Roy Bedichek, head of the Texas will make the decision.

The most spectacular run was made by the Canyon fullback, Wooten, who returned a punt 50 yards to the Jacks 21 yard line. The Eagles' second best run, of 20 yards, was made by Strain. The Jacks' longest run was 20 yards made by "Worm" Morgan.

Thomas, Canyon's right tackle, took the Jacks for their biggest loss when he tackled a Happy man for a 15 yard loss. Strain made the next best tackle, setting the Jacks on their ear 7 yards behind the scrimmage line.

Canyon fumbled 8 times and recovered the ball on 3 of their own fumbles. Happy fumbled one time. Canyon attempted to pass 4 times completed one for 11 yards; 2 were incomplete and one was intercepted. The Jacks attempted 3; completed 1 for 7 yards and 2 were incomplete.

MISS EDWARDS ENTERTAINS
A number of high school students were delightfully entertained at the home of Vara Edwards last Friday evening.

The guest list included: Bobbie Campbell, Bill Strain, Douglas Henson, Willard Middleton, Herbert Slack, "Red" Hardin, Tommie Elliston, Jack Cox, Leroy Lowry, Hoesa Foster, Ogden Stroud, Wilford Taylor, Clarence Wooten, Kayte B. Lowe, Celestine McGee, Lucille Davault, Elizabeth Jameson, Elizabeth Paulkner, Betty Sternburg and Lois Tackett of Happy.

Punch was served through the evening.

JUNIORS

The junior class has increased slightly and now holds the position of second in the high school enrollment. The juniors have high aims and fair prospects for the coming year. They expect to do many things (putting over a junior queen for instance.) Beware seniors, you are going to have competition.

Chapel Program Features Dedication of Curtain

The first chapel program of this school year was a very interesting one.

The gift of last year's senior class, a velvet curtain for the stage, was presented to the school and a short talk of presentation and dedication was made by Dorothy Faye Rusk, president of the 1930 class.

All of the new teachers were introduced to the student body, and Mr. Carruth announced the game with Happy, Friday. Following this program was a short, but peppy pep meeting.

C. H. S. Peps Meet and Elect Yell Leaders

The Purple Peps had their first meeting this year, Tuesday at noon. We practiced pep songs and yells. The pep songs and yells were practiced again Wednesday at noon. Another pep meeting was held Thursday at noon for the purpose of electing officers. Katy B. Lowe was elected president, Charline Wiseman secretary and treasurer, and "Bib" Jameson and Lucille Davault yell leaders. We are proud of our peppy yell leaders.

The pep squad practiced yells and songs again Friday at noon for the game that afternoon with Happy. All the girls seemed enthusiastic over the game. We are glad to have the new students in High School this year to be members of the pep squad. Although all the girls do not have pep suits now, we are hoping to have them soon.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

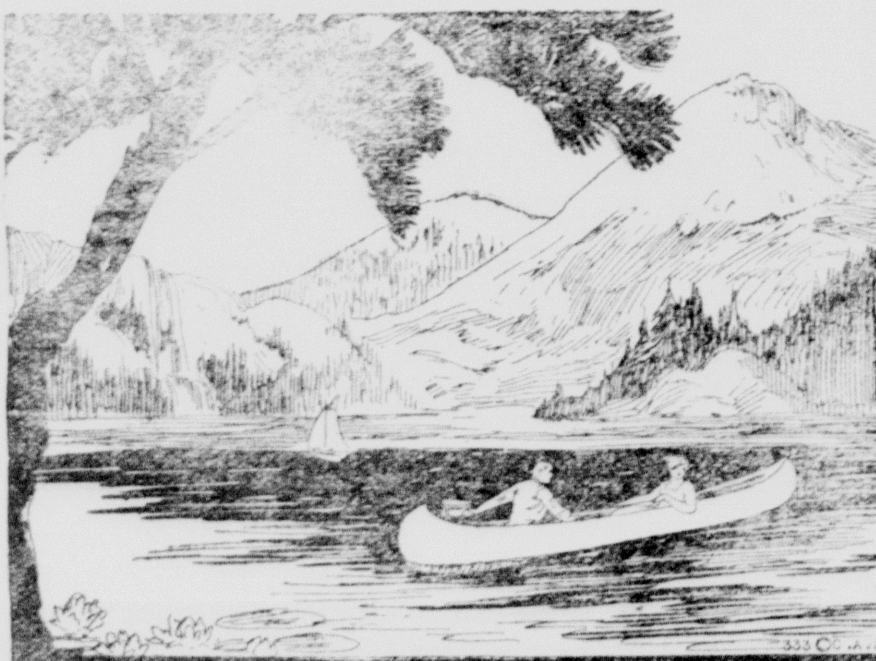

Miss Scott, the new public school music instructor, gave private try-outs for girls' glee club Thursday. Twenty-eight girls were tried and Miss Scott says she is fairly well pleased with the prospects.

This glee club work is very instructive and pleasant for both boys and girls. The class meets twice a week. They will work up a public appearance most likely a cantata or musical comedy.

The band also met for the first time Thursday night. Twenty people reported but a larger enrollment is expected. Miss Scott intends to start the junior band to work next week.

CANYON PUBLIC SCHOOLS HAVE RECORD ENROLLMENT MAKE CHANGES IN FACULTY

Seniors of '31 Meet and Elect New Officers

Forty-five seniors met Tuesday morning for the purpose of organizing the class. There are fewer seniors this year than in several years. However, the seniors of 1930-31 will accomplish just as much, in not more, than the senior classes before them have.

Several new students have joined the senior class this year, but they are just as much in earnest as the old members of the class.

Mr. Carruth met with the class and told them what would be expected of them this year. He explained to the group what would be necessary in order to make this a profitable year for them.

The business of this first meeting was carried out in the usual way. The officers of the senior class of 1930-31 are:

President—Nancy Strain.
Vice president—Hosae Foster.
Sec'y-Treas.—Sybil Gidden.

Miss Rusk was chosen sponsor of the class. She is also interested in making this year a success through both her work and fun. With the officers, their sponsor, and other members of the class, why shouldn't this be a great year?

A good beginning is always necessary in making a big success of the year's work and these seniors have started out right. After several items of interest were discussed, the class began their plans for the coming year. This senior class intends to do even more if possible, than the senior classes before them have done. This class will set examples for the entire student body to follow. In only one way can anything be accomplished by a class, and that is through co-operation of every member with the sponsor and entire faculty. This has been an outstanding class throughout their high school career, but watch them now.

LATIN DEPARTMENT

Latin students entered the room Monday with worried brows but they smiled it off when Miss Mattie Jordan came in with her usual smile.

The first year Latin class has six members (five boys and one girl) and ten members in the second year. Everyone is working hard for the trip to Lubbock and are already planning for the Latin initiation. The members of the old Latin class sincerely welcome the new members.

YOUTH—THEN AND NOW

Now and then we regret the passing of the old swimming pool. We sight a little for the blue-green waters that were so cool and refreshing when the sturdy bodies of little boys went plunging through them.

We talk about the truant days when children went far afield, farther and farther from the small red school house, until finally the echoes of its bell were lost down the long, sunny road.

Those who lived in the happy days have thrown a glamour across them. It is a long way down the memory tangled road and they recall only the dramatic. Those who have not known them thrill to the unreal.

The chances are 10 to one if a comparison could be made of those days and the present, we would discover that contemporary America is having an exceedingly good time in spite of the fact that its recreation is handed to it on a silver platter, whereas its fathers had to go dig for theirs.

During the month of August the city streets are lined with children's parades in many cities. Gaily and contentedly the children march, showing specimens of the handiwork which they have made at summer playgrounds; showing off their pets, which are caged like those of a regular circus; singing songs, and now and then masquerading like the trapeze performers and clowns of the circuses which have come on gala days.

They seem to be enjoying life quite as much as their fathers did. Maybe it is because they have never tasted forbidden fruit that they are satisfied. They have never had to slip away from a geography class to climb a tree and watch the sky and think long thoughts. They are taken on botany excursions and encouraged to scale the heights.

They have never had to slip out of the house when no one was looking, to join the gang diving at the mill pond. The playground provides supervised swimming every day.

Today's plan is much wiser and more sensible, of course. Approved play is very helpful and enjoyable. None will dispute that.

But that old, divine thrill of knowing you were doing something on your own was worth a couple of supervised hours. It gave a boy a feeling of importance. Of being a little bit daring, of approaching the blissful stage of manhood when he could swim at any hour and climb any tree without being reproved.

Forbidden fruit, even the harmless kind, is always sweeter.

We have no fault to find with the modern system. It is developing stronger, healthier boys and girls. It puts its approval on the natural activities of youth instead of making children have to act as culprits who should be ashamed of their exuberance.

But there is a little of the romance of adventure that the tamer order doesn't have, somehow.—NEA.

reasoning dread which paralyzes the will, and because of that false hope which prevents timely action. Much of that dread would vanish if the patient would grasp the truth that early cancer is far from being the hopeless thing that late cancer unhappily is."

There is little to be added to that. Every citizen ought to take it to heart—and, if ever he discovers in his own body a condition that might conceivably be cancerous, consult a good physician at once.—NEA.

The Family Doctor

One out of every seven persons over the age of 20 now dies of cancer. This figure in itself is sufficiently startling to emphasize anew the importance of fighting this dreadful, baffling disease in every way possible. It lends especial weight to a warning recently printed in the bulletin of The American Society for the Control of Cancer—a warning worth reprinting here:

"The writer of Dr. David Arthur Welsh. Pointing out the great need for prompt action in case of cancer, he says:

"If there is one fact of which we have clear and certain knowledge, it is that early cancer is often curable. Yet in this enlightened age one is astounded at the extent to which patients will allow cancers to grow before they seek service. They hesitate and hesitate until they are indeed lost, whereas if they had consulted their doctor at an earlier stage, and if the doctor had known what to do, a tragedy might have been averted.

"The experience of all who have had dealings with cancer is darkened by those tragedies of 'too late.' I do not hesitate to say that many of the deaths now credited to cancer should more promptly be ascribed to neglect.

"One reason is that cancer casts an unreasonable dread over its victims and that dread makes them reluctant to seek advice until it is too late and the time for cure has passed. There is the dread of cancer itself and the hope that the suspicious sign will prove not to be cancer after all, if only you wait long enough. But this is the one thing you cannot do; you cannot wait.

"Everyone knows that cancer is incurable when it has allowed to go too far. And it is often allowed to go too far because of that un-

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

WHAT A LITTLE
"PULL" WILL DO

BEWARE OF THE SNIPE

The scientists are studying the cigarette snipe. Their commission is to do something to it to make the snipe extinguish itself. Apparently there is no way to get at the smoker who throws it down. There is something in the cigarette temperament which is utterly un-mindful of the rights or even the safety of others. When the cigarette gets short, down it goes, and if it falls on something that can be ignited, why, so much the worse for that.

Forests have gone up in smoke for no better reason than that a careless finger flipped a snipe away into the leaves. Factories have been brought down to ashes and charred masonry, because the American smoker gives first thought to his appetite for nicotine and no thought at all to property, to the preservation of his job, or to the preservation of the jobs of his fellow-employees. Filling stations, grain fields, barns, residences—there is no end to the catalogue of vulnerable points to the menace of the lad with the lack-luster eye and the pendulous droop of a cigarette from his lower lip.

A man running around town with a bomb in his hand would be locked up, but we can't lock up the cigarette irresponsibles. There are too many of them. So the scientists are trying to create a cigarette that will go out when you drop it. But, if they do that, it will go out when you lay it down. That may not go so well with the boys who take a puff and then work abut before the next one.—Dallas News.

The Family Doctor

One out of every seven persons over the age of 20 now dies of cancer. This figure in itself is sufficiently startling to emphasize anew the importance of fighting this dreadful, baffling disease in every way possible. It lends especial weight to a warning recently printed in the bulletin of The American Society for the Control of Cancer—a warning worth reprinting here:

The writer of Dr. David Arthur Welsh. Pointing out the great need for prompt action in case of cancer, he says:

"If there is one fact of which we have clear and certain knowledge, it is that early cancer is often curable. Yet in this enlightened age one is astounded at the extent to which patients will allow cancers to grow before they seek service. They hesitate and hesitate until they are indeed lost, whereas if they had consulted their doctor at an earlier stage, and if the doctor had known what to do, a tragedy might have been averted.

"The experience of all who have had dealings with cancer is darkened by those tragedies of 'too late.' I do not hesitate to say that many of the deaths now credited to cancer should more promptly be ascribed to neglect.

"One reason is that cancer casts an unreasoning dread over its victims and that dread makes them reluctant to seek advice until it is too late and the time for cure has passed. There is the dread of cancer itself and the hope that the suspicious sign will prove not to be cancer after all, if only you wait long enough. But this is the one thing you cannot do; you cannot wait.

"Everyone knows that cancer is incurable when it has allowed to go too far. And it is often allowed to go too far because of that un-reasoning dread which paralyzes the will, and because of that false hope which prevents timely action. Much of that dread would vanish if the patient would grasp the truth that early cancer is far from being the hopeless thing that late cancer unhappily is."

There is little to be added to that. Every citizen ought to take it to heart—and, if ever he discovers in his own body a condition that might conceivably be cancerous, consult a good physician at once.—NEA.

"Gifty" Gifts That Are Also Practical

We have "outdone" ourselves this season in securing practical gifts suitable for every occasion and for everybody. Utility is the keynote of these newest gifts and we urge you to see them.

The newest thing we are featuring in wedding gifts is chromium plated ware which is guaranteed never to tarnish. These odd pieces include casseroles, sandwich trays, bon bon dishes, hot roll trays and relish dishes. If you have a bridal gift to select, see these, for they are surely acceptable.

HAND PAINTED EUROPEAN CHINA

are also among the newer things. Made in Germany and Czecho-Slovakia, they are truly representative of European art in china. Interesting pieces to own or to give, yet they are not expensive.

NAMES OF TOWNS

If an "ask me another" fiend were to ask you what is the most popular name for towns in the United States, what would you guess? Unless you had checked up the names in the United States Postal Guide, it is safe to say that you would not hit upon the right name in a dozen guesses.

Of course, Washington would suggest itself, also Springfield, possibly Paris. But neither of them is the leader, although Washington stands in the second rank.

The most popular town name in the United States is Clinton, of which there are 30.

Next comes Chester, Florence, and Washington with 28 of each; Clayton, Madison, Marion and Troy, 27; Glenwood, Kingsport, Newport and Salem, 26; Ashland and Centerville, 25.

There are 24 Cleavelands and the same number of Springfields, several of them being important cities. Other names range from this number downward. There is only one New York, but 2 Chicagos, 6 Philadelphias and 8 Detroits.

The outstanding popularity of the name of Clinton, although two statesmen of that name were very prominent in the early days of the Republic.

George Clinton was the first governor of the state of New York and was vice-president of the United States at the time of his death in 1812. His nephew, DeWitt Clinton, was also governor of New York and an unsuccessful candidate for the presidency being defeated by Madison.

Whether it be through the fame of these statesmen or the euphony of the name itself, Clinton is the favorite name for towns in the United States.

AGE SECRET UNKNOWN

Often interviewed on his birthday and asked the secret of his long life, Major Charles Manly Stedman of North Carolina, now 89 and the oldest member of Congress has had little light to throw on the subject.

Once he said: "The whole secret of my long and active life is the providence of God." This answer was concise enough, but it would perhaps be of little benefit to anyone else. Pressed for further details, he went on to tell something of his personal habits saying:

"I smoke more cigars than the ordinary man, and have smoked a great deal most of my life. I eat anything I like that is set on the table before me. I do much walking at home, but in Washington I take no particular form of exercise."

Surely this is not a difficult regimen, but it might not work out with others as it has with the venerable Major, who first went to Congress when he was 70, and is now in his 20th year of service at Washington.

While persons of extreme age often believe that certain habits of life, or lack of habits, are responsible for their longevity there appears to be no old age secret. Some folks just happen to live a long time, usually without making any special effort to do so.

A REAL NUISANCE

With general business conditions such as they are throughout the country, the beggar and peddler nuisance around our town seems to be more troublesome than usual. Scarcely a day passes that some individual with a tale of woe does not attempt to get a small donation or sell some worthless merchandise that our people do not want to buy.

It is sometimes hard to be gruff and short. People in need call forth sympathy, but there is no question but many kindly souls are being imposed upon by men and women who find a tale of woe more profitable than hard work. Yet there seems to be little reason for giving support to peddlers. We have everything we could possibly need available right here in our local stores, and we know that the man behind the counter is also behind the merchandise that we buy. We also know that he is going to be right here where we can talk to him in the event a purchase should happen to turn out unsatisfactorily.

If it is charity we are called upon to offer, then let us give it to the deserving—to those who really need help. Unfortunately the people of this class are usually too proud to beg. A little study will show that most of our kindly intentions lead to nothing when they prompt us to help beggars. For begging is now and always has been a profitable business for those who know how to arouse sympathy. Money is too hard to get to warrant throwing it away and for that reason you are perfectly justified in turning down the peddler and the beggar who is able bodied enough to get his living like you get yours—by the sweat of the brow.

One thing that is the matter with this country is that too often the car parked in front of the home is worth more than the house itself.

WEDDING SCENE FROM ERNIE YOUNG'S REVUE

With the announcement from Wilbur C. Hawk, President of the Tri-State Fair which will be held at Amarillo from next Monday to Saturday, that the bridal couple for Ernie Young's Public Legal Wedding Ceremony had been chosen, everything in the line of entertainment for the big week is set and ready for the hundreds of thousands that will visit the fair this year.

The couple who will be united in holy wedlock on the night of Friday, Sept. 26, immediately following the final number of Ernie Young's "Spanish Nights" are Valla Mae Yarbrough of 727 North Harrison Street and James Cheshire of 1309 Polk Street, both of Amarillo.

The personnel of the big Revue will arrive in Amarillo on Sunday allowing ample time for the sitting up of the portable stage, adjusting amplifiers, etc. Besides the beautiful young ladies of the ensemble that Mr. Young carries he will introduce to fair patrons such celebrities under his banner as Evelyn Willis, Prima Donna, Don and Dorece, spectacular adagio dancing team, Al Wilde, master of ceremonies, Kate Pullman familiarly known to her audiences as "America's Sweetheart" and many others.

Ernie Young will be present with his revue thus assuring perfect routine and harmony. He is most anxious to leave a lastingly pleasing impression in Amarillo.

The public is invited to take advantage of securing their box and grandstand seats for Ernie Young's engagement in advance, particularly for the night of the wedding. There will be tremendous crowds attending the revue performances and on this account Mr. Hawk has arranged with the City Drug Company to place reserved tickets on sale there beginning next Wednesday.

College days are here again! College days are here again! College days are here again! Sad days are here again!

Kids from all over the Panhandle are back to be with us and among us for the next nine months. New freshies are to be seen strutting the streets.

College days are here again!

And now lets give 'em rides. It don't hurt anyone to give a college kid a ride to the campus when you are passing down the street and it will leave a friendly sort of feeling with the college students.

And College days are here again!

I got started on the free and hand rides a bit too late last spring, but here it goes now. More rides for the college kids is my motto.

"Say something sweet," said the maid, And through her colored glasses She eyed him fondly as he breathed The single word, "Molasses."

Believe it or not, College days are here again!

Things are strange around this man's town these days. It was only a short three or four months ago that Ed Mickie laughed at Hud Prichard and Lee Foster about playing golf and now they both laugh at Ed playing—so early in the morn.

The young squirt in the back shop was discovered sitting on the company's pocketbook the other day.

My friend old Farmer Hogfissel, says that he wonders if the name of a certain realty firm in town means "try and angle" a sucker.

Oscar Gano and Bill Bryant were playing golf the other day and they both sliced their drives into the rough (something unusual) and went in search of their balls. They searched for a long time without success. Lee Foster and his wife were playing in the same neighborhood. After the search had lasted for sometime, Mrs. Foster said to Lee, "Would it be cheating if I told them where they are?"

Oh boy! College days are here again! They are here again.

It is said that O. O. McIntire, the noted New York writer has a yearly output of 500,000 words. It is by this output that he makes a handsome living. Incidentally I know several women in our neighborhood that have a larger output of words than that and they get nothing for it.

Well, folks, now I am going to get serious for a second or so. We ought to all rise up in arms and demand that night drivers without lights be pinched by the officers and pinched hard. We ought to demand that the judges ought to fine 'em and fine 'em heavy.

Too many, far too many car accidents have been happening here lately because of unlighted, parked vehicles on the highways and it can't be the cause of the driver that hits the parked vehicle either, because the most of the wrecks are by men who are known for their careful driving and who have always attempted to avoid crashes of any kind.

It needs to be stopped and now is the time to stop it. Public demand ought to be brought to bear on those in authority to enforce the law. Warnings have been issued time and again but now is the time to act. If the present officers can't enforce the law in regards to bad lights either get some one that can or get them more help to do it. Everyone who has a car improperly lighted at night and drives on the streets and highways in this town and county ought to be handed a ticket without reservation. Also they should be required to pay a stiff fine, and not the minimum amount either.

It will take lots of demands to get it all stopped but a few heavy fines will do it and it will beat the loss of life through carelessness and negligence on the part of the officers.

Fix your car lights.

One rotten egg doesn't spoil the whole dozen, unless you scramble them.

Six Wheat Sowing Factors to Remember

By H. M. Bainer, Director
Southwestern Wheat Improvement Association.

1. A satisfactory wheat crop cannot be expected on a late and poorly prepared seed bed. Suitable early preparation, on the other hand, will kill weeds, save moisture and insure higher yields.

2. It is impossible to maintain a healthy and highly productive soil by growing wheat on it too many years in succession. In humid sections it pays to rotate wheat with legumes or other crops but where the rainfall is limited, a rotation with summer fallow will be found more profitable.

3. New and untried varieties are risky. The price of $5.00 to $10.00 per bushel that the farmer often pays for this kind of wheat usually benefits the party who sells it more than the farmer. It is best to hold to the old standard varieties like Turkey, until other thoroughly tested ones are found that are better.

4. When increase in yield and quality is considered, pure seed costs less than ordinary seed. The careful buyer of seed wheat always looks out for weedseed, rye and smut. If an up-to-date wheat farmer sows ordinary seed, he does not use the scoop shovel in selecting it, unless he is improving it by grading and fanning.

5. Only the more or less careless farmer will permit rye to grow in his wheat. It is a wasteful practice. Besides lowering the grade and price, rye mixture makes an unsatisfactory combination for the grain, flour or bread.

6. The farmer who raises smutty wheat and, on account of it, loses an average of 3 bushels per acre and 5 cents per bushel in price for what he sells, is paying an enormous penalty, especially when he realizes that he could have prevented the loss by seed treatment at a cost of less than 10 cents an acre for labor and material.

College days are here again! College days are here again! College days are here again! Sad days are here again!

Kids from all over the Panhandle are back to be with us and among us for the next nine months. New freshies are to be seen strutting the streets.

College days are here again!

And now lets give 'em rides. It don't hurt anyone to give a college kid a ride to the campus when you are passing down the street and it will leave a friendly sort of feeling with the college students.

And College days are here again!

I got started on the free and hand rides a bit too late last spring, but here it goes now. More rides for the college kids is my motto.

"Say something sweet," said the maid, And through her colored glasses She eyed him fondly as he breathed "The single word, 'Molasses.'"

Believe it or not, College days are here again!

Things are strange around this man's town these days. It was only a short three or four months ago that Ed Mickie laughed at Hud Prichard and Lee Foster about playing golf and now they both laugh at Ed playing—so early in the morn.

The young squirt in the back shop was discovered sitting on the company's pocketbook the other day.

My friend old Farmer Hogfissel, says that he wonders if the name of a certain realty firm in town means "try and angle" a sucker.

Oscar Gano and Bill Bryant were playing golf the other day and they both sliced their drives into the rough (something unusual) and went in search of their balls. They searched for a long time without success. Lee Foster and his wife were playing in the same neighborhood. After the search had lasted for sometime, Mrs. Foster said to Lee, "Would it be cheating if I told them where they are?"

Oh boy! College days are here again! They are here again.

It is said that O. O. McIntire, the noted New York writer has a yearly output of 500,000 words. It is by this output that he makes a handsome living. Incidentally I know several women in our neighborhood that have a larger output of words than that and they get nothing for it.

Well, folks, now I am going to get serious for a second or so. We ought to all rise up in arms and demand that night drivers without lights be pinched by the officers and pinched hard. We ought to demand that the judges ought to fine 'em and fine 'em heavy.

Too many, far too many car accidents have been happening here lately because of unlighted, parked vehicles on the highways and it can't be the cause of the driver that hits the parked vehicle either, because the most of the wrecks are by men who are known for their careful driving and who have always attempted to avoid crashes of any kind.

It needs to be stopped and now is the time to stop it. Public demand ought to be brought to bear on those in authority to enforce the law. Warnings have been issued time and again but now is the time to act. If the present officers can't enforce the law in regards to bad lights either get some one that can or get them more help to do it. Everyone who has a car improperly lighted at night and drives on the streets and highways in this town and county ought to be handed a ticket without reservation. Also they should be required to pay a stiff fine, and not the minimum amount either.

It will take lots of demands to get it all stopped but a few heavy fines will do it and it will beat the loss of life through carelessness of the driver of automobiles and negligence on the part of the officers.

Fix your car lights.

One rotten egg doesn't spoil the whole dozen, unless you scramble them.

berths on the eleven. The squad has thinned during the past several days, with a few of the candidates dropping out. So far as yet, the Buff mentors have escaped the dreaded jinx of injuries. Tidwell, a recruit from Ralls, is the only one who has been forced out of the game by injuries. His injury was the result of an infected foot. However, Coach Burton stated yesterday that he would be ready for action within a few days.

Much work has been accomplished in the short time the boys have been in action at the training camp. They have all toughened and appear to be in the pink of condition when they are lined up for scrimmage. Their work is making them look like veterans and the material is so good that the positions on the eleven are still "any man's" with the fight for the coveted places waxing warmer.

A fight to the end is being made for the end positions. An even dozen men are after the wing berths, with the outcome still a puzzle. Elvis Ward and Boyce Bandy, ends of last year, both finished school in the spring. At this time the choice for the jobs lies between a half dozen of the candidates. The others are still scrapping gamely but need a little more seasoning before they are ready for the pace.

L. B. Penick of Canyon and Dock Haley of El Paso, letter men and reserve end last year are leading in the race but have nothing sewed up. Each weighs 160 pounds.

He trips the Fairbanks at a trifle under 200 and likes his football row.

Cow Williams, blond giant of Canyon high who carries his 190 pounds in good fashion, is making it merry also. He is rather fast and will likely see service after becoming accustomed to the job. He played fullback for the high school. These lads usually make good ends and tackles in college.

Lloyd Harris of Follett, Bowen Cox of Canyon, Pat Murphy of Dimmitt, D. E. Dodson of Olton, Carroll Killebrew of Higgins, Robert Hargrove of Hoehne, Colo., and Joe Fortenberry of Happy round out the list of those who would be ends.

Coach Reeds Buff line from tackle to tackle, looks good. If there is a weak spot in the line it is at the center position.

Bill McLendon who played much of the time last season, looks to be the most likely candidate for this position and he is a good man for his experience and weight. Bill only weighs 165 and has had but one year of experience, and that was as an alternate with Gordon Thompson.

The other center candidates are Bob Jarrett and Ralph Tidwell. Jarrett, of Canyon, is a Junior in college, but he never came out for football until last year and an attack of appendicitis cut his training period short. Jarrett weighs 185 pounds, but is lacking experience.

Tidwell hails from Ralls and was showing well for a recruit, until he got a blistered foot infected. He has not been able to suit out for several days. "Tid" weighs about 165 and has a lot of fight.

At the guard and tackle position are: John Gillham of Canyon, Leo Cooper and Weldon Logan, both of Lockney. All three are letter men and weigh 160, 170 and 190 pounds respectively.

Whaley of Ralls, a 190 pound husky, George Manning of Ralls, a little 220 pound lad, who was in school here several years ago and played on the Yearling squad bid fair to become good tackles.

Cyril Layne a product of Hereford high tips the scales at 184. has the fight. He has had service on the Yearling squad and as a Buff reserve.

Wayne "Dobie" Johnson a former Eagle of Canyon high is showing up well. He tips the beam at 193.

"Fats" Kayler, of Olton weighs 198 and has served as a Yearling. He will doubtless see much service before the current season comes to a close.

O. V. Johnson, a product of Central high in Oklahoma City, although light in weight, is making the going hard for some of the other boys. He is especially adept on the defense.

D. V. Biggers, of McLean, and Tim Daugherty of Olton are Yearlings of last year and are showing up to good advantage, although they weigh 165 and 160 respectively.

OUR BIGGEST CITIES

Census reports show some striking changes of rank among the cities of the country as compared with 1920 figures. The relative standing of the first four, New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Detroit, is unchanged, but Los Angeles jumps from tenth to fifth place, displacing Cleveland.

Most notable gains are shown by several Southern cities, including Atlanta, Houston, Dallas, Birmingham, San Antonio, Memphis and Fort Worth. Populations of Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Chattanooga and Tampa were approximately doubled during the decade, while Miami showed the greatest gain among the larger cities, rising from 29,571 to 110,025 and in rank from 255th to 77th.

The United States now has five cities with more than a million population, 13 with more than half a million, 38 with more than a quarter of a million, and 93 with more than 100,000. Including the above, there are 361 cities with more than 25,000 population.

Census figures do not always give an accurate idea of the number of persons living in the various metropolitan areas, however, as in many cases the incorporated city overflows into adjacent counties and this suburban population is not included in the census count, although practically a part of the city concerned.

LABOR DAY

Although Labor Day as we know it in America was first celebrated less than a half century ago, the parade which usually accompanies its observance might well be considered as a revival of mediaeval processions of the craft-guilds in England and on the continent of Europe.

While there is some difference of opinion among labor historians themselves as to the exact origin of Labor Day, it appears that its first observance was a parade by the Central Labor Union of New York in 1882.

The idea spread, and in 1887 Colorado passed the first law holidaying the day a legal holiday. In 1894 Congress made Labor Day a holiday in the District of Columbia and in all Federal departments, since which time nearly all States have given the day official recognition.

Celebrated on the first Monday in September, Labor Day has long been widely observed, especially in cities where trade unions flourish, with parades, speeches, games and general picnics in which all classes take part.

It is the Nation's annual tribute to its vast army of workers—a fitting recognition of the dignity of honest toil.

GOT HIM AT LAST

After several years of unsuccessful efforts to get a local hardware merchant to advertise, the publisher of a Kansas weekly newspaper recently was surprised to receive an order for a full page advertisement from the former non-advertiser.

Glancing at the copy the publisher saw that it advertised a "closing out sale." The hardware man was going out of business. His advertising competitors had taken his trade and there was nothing left for him to do but quit. So the newspaper man had landed his prospect at last.

The merchant recognized the power of advertising to help him to get out of business, but had never tried to use it as a means of staying in business. There are a good many merchants like that.

ABDOMINAL PAIN

"By John Joseph Gaines, M. D.
Speaking plainly, "bellyache." Fifty years ago, a patient complaining of it was jollied a bit, finally given a good "swig" of castor oil, which generally subdued the villain, and, closed the incident happily for all concerned.

A volume might be—indeed many have been—written on abdominal pain; there is no more important symptom in the category of human ailments than this.

It may mean a most serious process starting up; the physician knows this—the patient may not. Given a woman and a child, both suffering from pain in the same locality; the cause of distress in each may be far from similar, and demand entirely different treatment. The day of hit-or-miss medication has gone.

The sufferer with abdominal pain, acute or chronic, should consult the family physician the very first thing; take no medicine whatever until he advises it. Many a life has been lost by the delay caused by trying out really strong medicines that are "purely vegetable," and are in the family medicine chest. Some of these contain strong portions of aloes, podophyllin, belladonna, and the like—that should never be taken without a capable physician's advice.

The day of strong purgation to "stir up the liver" is a thing of the past. The medicine that literally tears through an errant digestive tract may get results—but may set up trouble that it will cost many dollars and anxiety to relieve.

There are a few medicines that are known to be harmless; but more harm can be done by taking a chance shot at an abdominal pain from the family medicine chest, than in any other condition that I recall at this time. We used to drink castor oil and turpentine for most everything; but in these days of appendicitis and Bright's disease, such procedures are dangerously absurd.

OTHER FOLKS BELIEVE IN US

So much has been printed since the end of the war about the position of the United States as a creditor nation, that most of us never stop to ask whether we still owe anybody anything.

It remained for Dr. Julius Klein, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, to point out the other day that besides, being the greatest creditor nation of the world, we are also the greatest debtor nation.

In other words, the United States is the financial center of the world.

"No country in history has ever owed so much to foreigners as we Americans owe today," said Dr. Klein. He did not mean, however, that this is a national debt. He was talking about debts owed abroad by American business.

We have always owed money abroad. The railway system of the United States was built in the beginning and largely financed since by selling the bonds and much of the preferred stock in Europe. We are not the only people who have always been ready to bet on the future of America. When the late Arthur Stilwell wanted money with which to build the Kansas City Southern he could not get it in America, but found it in Holland. When the Pennsylvania Railroad needed a hundred million dollars with which to build a terminal on Manhattan Island and dig a tunnel under the Hudson river, it borrowed the money in France against its bonds. Those are only two out of thousands of examples of the way foreign capital has been invested in the United States in the past.

There was a lull during and after the war, but now Europeans are pouring money into our enterprises with even greater eagerness than before. Apparently foreign investors think this is a better place to invest than at home.

At the end of 1929, Dr. Klein points out, the total European investment in American industry had climbed to seven and one-half billion dollars. No such sum had ever been reached before the war. These investments are in all sorts of industries. Twenty out of the 23 artificial silk plants in the South are owned by European capital. Perfumery industries, photographic supplies, many great chemical plants, as well as railroads and other familiar forms of foreign investment are on the list berths on the eleven. The squad has thinned during the past several days, with a few of the candidates dropping out. So far as yet, the Buff mentors have escaped the dreaded jinx of injuries. Tidwell, a recruit from Rails, is the only one who has been forced out of the game by injuries. His injury was the result of an infected foot. However, Coach Burton stated yesterday that he would be ready for action within a few days.

Much work has been accomplished in the short time the boys have been in action at the training camp. They have all toughened and appear to be in the pink of condition when they are lined up for scrimmage. Their work is making them look like veterans and the material is so good that the positions on the eleven are still "any man's" with the fight for the coveted places waxing warmer.

A fight to the end is being made for the end positions. An even dozen men are after the wing berths, with the outcome still a puzzle. Elvis Ward and Boyce Bandy, ends of last year, both finished school in the spring. At this time the choice for the jobs lies between a half dozen of the candidates. The others are still scrapping gamely but need a little more seasoning before they are ready for the pace.

L. B. Penick of Canyon and Dock Haley of El Paso, letter men and reserve end last year are leading in the race but have nothing sewed up. Each weighs 160 pounds.

Otis Burk, Rails, who spent very much of last year on the shelf with a wrenched back, is still very much in the competition; he weighs 165. Edwin Comer, Clovis giant who lettered last year at guard has moved out to the extremity and is showing plenty. Comer is a 6 foot, 5 inch and does right well in handling passes. He trips the Fairbanks at a trifle under 200 and likes his football row.

Cow Williams, blond giant of Canyon high who carries his 190 pounds in good fashion, is making it merry also. He is rather fast and will likely see service after becoming accustomed to the job. He played fullback for the high school. These lads usually make good ends and tackles in college.

Lloyd Harris of Pollett, Bowen Cox of Canyon, Pat Murphy of Dimmitt, D. E. Dodson of Olton, Carroll Killebrew of Higgins, Robert Hargrove of Hoehne, Colo., and Joe Fortenberry of Happy round out the list of those who would be ends.

Coach Reeds Buff line from tackle to tackle, looks good. If there is a weak spot in the line it is at the center position.

Bill McLendon, who played much of the time last season, looks to be the most likely candidate for this position and he is a good man for his experience, and weight. Bill only weighs 165 and has had but one year of experience, and that was as an alternate with Gordon Thompson.

The other center candidates are Bob Jarrett and Ralph Tidwell. Jarrett, of Canyon, is a Junior in college, but he never came out for football until last year and an attack of appendicitis cut his training period short. Jarrett weighs 185 pounds, but is lacking experience.

Tidwell hails from Rails and was showing well for a recruit, until he got a blistered foot infected. He has not been able to suit out for several days. "Tid" weighs about 165 and has a world of fight.

At the guard and tackle position are: John Gillham of Canyon, Leo Cooper and Weldon Logan, both of Lockney. All three are letter men and weigh 160, 170 and 190 pounds respectively.

Whaley of Rails, a 190 pound husky, George Manning of Rails, a little 220 pound lad, who was in school here several years ago and played on the Yearling squad bid fair to become good tackles.

Cyril Layne a product of Hereford high tips the scales at 184, has the fight. He has had service on the Yearling squad and as a Buff reserve.

Wayne "Dobie" Johnson a former Eagle of Canyon high is showing up well. He tips the beam at 193.

"Fats" Kayler, of Olton weighs 198 and has served as a Yearling. He will doubtless see much service before the current season comes to a close.

O. V. Johnson, a product of Central high in Oklahoma City, although light in weight, is making the going hard for some of the other boys. He is especially adept on the defense.

D. V. Biggers, of McLean, and Tim Daugherty of Olton are Yearlings of last year and are showing up to good advantage, although they weigh 165 and 160 respectively.

Census reports show some striking changes of rank among the cities of the country as compared with 1920 figures. The relative standing of the first four, New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Detroit, is unchanged, but Los Angeles jumps from tenth to fifth place, displacing Cleveland.

Most notable gains is shown by several Southern cities, including Atlanta, Houston, Dallas, Birmingham, San Antonio, Memphis and Fort Worth. Populations of Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Chattanooga and Tampa were approximately doubled during the decade, while Miami showed the greatest gain among the larger cities, rising from 29,571 to 110,025 and in rank from 255th to 77th.

The United States now has five cities with more than a million population, 13 with more than half a million, 38 with more than a quarter of a million, and 93 with more than 100,000. Including the above, there are 361 cities with more than 25,000 population.

Census figures do not always give an accurate idea of the number of persons living in the various metropolitan areas, however, as in many cases the incorporated city overflows into adjacent counties and this suburban population is not included in the census count, although practically a part of the city concerned.

LABOR DAY

Although Labor Day as we know it in America was first celebrated less than a half century ago, the parade which usually accompanies its observance might well be considered as a revival of mediaeval processions of the craft-guilds in England and on the continent of Europe.

The idea spread, and in 1887 Colorado passed the first law making the day a legal holiday. In 1894 Congress made Labor Day a holiday in the District of Columbia and in all Federal departments, since which time nearly all States have given the day official recognition.
